DESCRIPTION/SPECIFICATION
Impact Testing of HP Storage Works XP12000 Disk Array by a .308 caliber M80 Ball round fired at approximately 2,900 feet/second. Test diagnostics were color high-speed digital imaging of impact and residual penetration of the Disk Array.
The results of the impact test were successful; the Disk Array continued to function normally after complete penetration of the unit by the bullet. High-speed video of: 1) the bullet impacting the selected aim point and 2), exit of the bullet from the Disk Array were obtained and delivered to the HP Representative on site.
