THE COMPAQ EDUCATOR PURCHASE PROGRAM

COMPAQ

NOW THERE'S NOTHING HOLDING YOU BACK.

With the Compaq Educator Purchase Program, you've got the exclusive opportunity to bring home one of our outstanding multimedia desktop or notebook Presario PCs at an affordable price – just for educators. These PCs are loaded with Microsoft software for maximum home productivity, and the Compaq Teacher Productivity LearningPaq software collection for multimedia lesson design, teaching tools and data management. Plus, you'll get unbelievable power, awesome sound and graphics, and an integrated modem for the most sensational Internet experience ever. Presario desktop and minitower PCs come bundled with your choice of a 14", 15" or 17" multimedia monitor to complete the performance picture.

WE'VE GOT EXACTLY THE RIGHT PC FOR YOU.

Our exciting lineup includes the uncompromising Presario 2240 desktop – with a high-performance MMX™-enhanced processor, booming JBL Pro Audio, and fast CD-ROM drive for rich multimedia options. The expandable Presario 4550 minitower is loaded with an Iomega® Zip® drive for vast data storage on removable disks, Dolby® Digital Surround Sound for a spine-tingling audio experience, and Level 2 Pipeline Burst Cache for a sensational overall performance boost. The explosive multimedia powerhouse Presario 4640 minitower is packed with a blazing Intel Pentium® II processor with MMX™ technology; a DVD-ROM drive¹ that lets you harness the power of graphics- and memory-intensive applications and entertainment; and the most dynamic video performance you'll find anywhere.

Plus, we're also offering two notebook solutions – the Presario 1220, a fully integrated multimedia PC that delivers superb audio, video and communications technologies at a solid value; and the Presario 1621, featuring awesome power and outrageous sight, sound and multimedia for the most extreme tasks. With easy-to-use controls and full integration, these two notebooks give you all the work and play tools needed in your busy, mobile life.
